

I'm writing to urge you to reject the NAB's petition to prohibit localized programming on national satellite radio stations. Allowing local programming on satellite radio will only improve the content choices for consumers. The NAB's petition serves no public interest, only the interest of their member organizations by limiting competition from an increasingly popular alternative. Please reject the NAB's petition.